A Pawnbroking Experiment.

Notice is served in The Christian Union of the impending trial of an eleemosynary experiment which has long been discussed and is of unusual interest. In August or September the People's Bank association hopes to open the first of several model pawn offices for the poor. The newspapers abound from day to day with stories telling how hard it is for the very poor to borrow indispensable small sums of money and what exorbitant rates of interest are exacted for such loans. The legal rate at pawnshops is 3 per cent a month for the first six months and 2 per cent a month for succeeding months, but most pawnbrokers supplement these rates by charges for care of the articles pawned, so that as much as 300 per cent per annum is something paid to them for the use of money.

The People's Bank association proposes to begin by a charge of 1 per cent. a month and expects to start with $100,000 capital, which is to earn 4 per cent dividends for its owners. The success of such a movement seems to depend simply on the shrewdness of the money lender employed. With the right man in the avuncular situatio there seems to be no inevitable obstacle to the success of a plan which, if it does succeed, seems bound to help the right people at the right time. Plans for the relief of pawnbrokers who succumb to competition can be devised later on if they are needed.—Harper's Weekly.

A Woman's Apt Reply to Mr. Cleveland.

It was during Cleveland's first incumbency. The daughter of a lawyer prominent in a neighboring Kansas town had married an officer who a few months after the ceremony had been detailed to a remote post. The young wife, who had enjoyed a sort of belleship in the semimetropolitan community in which she had been reared, felt as if she were about to be buried alive. Encouraged by her husband and father, she repaired to Washington to seek reprieve at headquarters.

"Fort Riley? Why, that's a pretty good detail, isn't it?" asked the president, to whom the lady had stated her case.

"No, sir; it doesn't suit me at all."

"Shouldn't we try to be satisfied where we are?" continued the chief magistrate, with a patronizing smile.

"You might have been satisfied with being sheriff at Buffalo, but you wanted to be the president of the United States," came the pert retort.

Mr. Cleveland arose with the same patriarchal smile on his face, but the lieutenant's wife is still at Fort Riley.—Kansas City Times.

Quarantine Against Hamburg.

As we had to shut the gates of New York against Hamburg for a time last year, we may have to shut them against it once more this year. We cannot tolerate any foolery about the existence of cholera in a city with which we are constantly in communication. We must not permit Hamburg to imperil New York. The authorities of the German city have once and again concealed from us facts which they were in honor bound to make known. They did so last autumn, and they have done so twice within the past two months. As "Punic faith" got a bad name ages ago, Hamburg faith is likely to get a bad name in our times. Hamburg will act wisely in sending us immediate reports of all cases of cholera, variola, typhus and porrigo there.—New York Sun.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for Washoe county. The State of Nevada sends, to Alexander McMurtrey greeting: You are required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant, by Etta McMurtrey as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service) if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to obtain the judgment and decree of said court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between you, said defendant, and the said plaintiff, be dissolved and forever annulled, upon the several grounds of extreme cruelty, willful desertion and failure on your part to provide the plaintiff with the common necessaries of life, having the ability so to do, and for general relief; all of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded.

Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. B. Wharton, Baltimore, Md

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. So good a medicine deserves universal commendation.

THE DESPISED STANDARD DOLLAR.

The goldbug assertion that there is no demand for standard dollars is refuted by the statement of the treasury department. This statement shows that all the standard dollars in the government vaults are represented in the circulation by silver notes redeemable in silver dollars. These silver notes pass current on a parity with gold notes and greenbacks in the goldbug strongholds of the east as well as in the west. If there were more silver dollars in the treasury there could be more silver notes issued and the amount of money in circulation increased. But the coinage of silver ceased by order of the secretary of the treasury two months ago on the ground that there was no demand for them, when at the same time all the silver dollars in the treasury were held to redeem silver notes.

If the coinage of silver dollars had not been discontinued silver notes could be issued for them and the stringency in the money market relieved to the extent of such coinage. That, however, would not answer the purpose of those who have been doing all in their power to make money scarcer and the coinage of silver dollars ceased altogether.

Now there is a scarcity of currency in the east. Banks give notice that they will not pay out paper money on checks, and silver coins are in demand in the principal cities. The government has none to issue, as every silver dollar in the treasury vaults is held to redeem a silver note, and the mints are not coining any.

To-day there is a great demand for silver notes at the treasury. They are as acceptable to the public as greenbacks or treasury notes, but none can be issued. There are no silver dollars in the treasury upon which to base the issue, the mints are coining none and the country from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico and from the Atlantic to the Pacific suffers because of the scarcity of money, while there are stacks of uncoined bullion in the treasury. Why not, when there is a demand that the government cannot supply for silver notes, start every mint coining silver dollars and relieve the country from a panic by issuing notes for those dollars to those who prefer paper to coin?

INGALLS AS A CALAMITY HOWLER.

Ex-Senator Ingalls of Kansas is in a gloomy mood. The financial situation has changed the optomist into a pessamist. He thinks there will be a redistribution of assets and the millionaire of to-day will occupy the pauper seat, [illegible] of the millionaire. Colorado and the other mineral States should be blotted out and restored to the great American desert from which they were taken. On every street corner in Denver goes up the piteous cry for bread; in Wall street goes up the piteous cry for gold. When these two panicky conditions come together in the great Mississipi valley chaos and anarchy will follow.

Ex-Senator Ingalls is a Republican. He voted for the Sherman bill, McKinley bill and all other bills which were enacted by the dominant party for years, and if legislation is the cause of the present deplorable condition of the country he is partly responsible for that legislation.

It has been alleged that only the silver men are calamity howlers, yet here is a recognized leader of the Republican party who howls calamity louder than Jerry Simpson, and predicts anarchy in the near future. Why is it that those who have been straining their intellect to misconstrue the metaphor of Waite of Colorado do not turn their attention to ex-Senator Ingalls?

THE SAN FRANCISCO SUB-TREASURY.

The assistant treasurer of the United States at San Francisco reports the public money on hand in San Francisco July 31, 1893, at $50,420,152 73. This money consists of

United States notes	$90,444 00
Treasury notes 1890	21,025 00
National Bank notes	11,645 00
Gold certificates	6,320 00
Silver certificates	293,175 00
Gold coin	22,175,795 50
Standard silver dollars	24,194,237 00
Subsidiary silver coin	3,608,300 90
Minor coin	19,210 33

The 24,194,237 standard dollars are held for the redemption of outstanding silver notes as are the millions of standard dollers in the treasury at Washington. These dollars are in great demand throughout the country at the present time and the government, by reason of the suspension of silver coinage, cannot supply that demand.

AN examination of the accounts of ex-Secretary Foster, who failed recently, shows that he had overdrawn his personal account to the amount of $136,000. Foster is one of those who joined the gold trust, and opposed the remonetization of silver while his firm was running hopelessly in debt, and he was overdrawing his personal account so long as he could get trusted.

THE Elko Independent says the weekly papers of Texas are almost unanimously in favor of free coinage of silver, and if congress repeals the Sherman law without providing a satisfactory substitute, the "beastly Democratic majority" of Texas will be a thing of the past.

SAYS the Denver News: "Ask the spouter about immediate and unconditional repeal, how he proposes to make money plentiful by drawing half of it out of circulation."

BALFOUR ON SILVER.

He Makes a Speech Favoring Bimetallism.

MRS STANFORD'S ALLOWANCE

Thousands of Deaths From Cholera in Mecca and Jeddah.

HON. A. J. BALFOUR.

He Addresses a London Meeting in Favor of Silver.

LONDON, August 3.—A meeting was held to-day at the official residence of the lord mayor to consider the financial and business situation. It was presided over by the lord mayor. The gathering was very largely attended.

Among those present were the Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, Rt. Hon. Henry Chaplain (formerly president of the board of agriculture), Rt. Hon. Sir Lubbock of the firm of Lubbock & Co., bankers; Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, American ambassador to Great Britain; Dana Horton, and most of the leading bankers of London.

Balfour made an address. He disclaimed political motives and alluded to the anxiety felt throughout the business world connected with the currency changes in India and the action that might be taken by the United States government. The gold standard, Balfour declared, would never satisfy the commercial wants, while the double standard alone would prevent dangerous oscillations in trade.

He condemned isolated action on the part of individual states and recommended an international agreement fixing the ratio of value between gold and silver. In the course of his address Balfour denied that the advocates of bimetallism aimed at inflation of the currency.

This might be true, he said, of some bimetallists connected with the western states of America, but it did not apply to the bimetallists of Europe, who believe the adoption of bimetallism would prove the safest commercial policy. In the event of an European war the double standard would, according to Balfour, be found very advantageous.

The meeting adopted a vote of thanks to Balfour for the address.

Mrs. Stanford Allowed $5,000 a Month.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 3.—Mrs. Leland Stanford has petitioned the probate court to allow her $5,000 for family support pending the time that the inventory to the big estate is filed.

According to her petition she is dependent upon the estate for her maintenance and the estate is amply able to provide her at least $5,000 a month. "A reasonable amount," she says, "according to her circumstances and accustomed mode of life."

Judge Coffey has granted the petition. Payment begins from June 21st.

The appraisers of the big estate have not yet been appointed. It will take several months to inventory and make a return of the property.

A New Mining Company.

TACOMA, August 4.—The Big Bonanza Mining Company has been incorporated here. The capital stock is $10,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares. The directors are: Henry Raymond, San Francisco; E. L. Lewis, Chicago; C. B. Askew, California; Stephen Ryder, W. F. Sargent, John W. McKeehan of Tacoma and W. C. Bronson and L. E. Rice of Portland The company has located 220 acres of land in eastern Oregon and will put in a 100-stamp mill.

Thousands of Cases.

LONDON, August 3.—The engineer of the Danish steamer Trawler has been taken to a hospital in Grimsby suffering with cholera.

There have been 6,666 deaths from cholera in Mecca, and 2,318 in Jeddah since the present epidemic broke out.

Courageous Young Ladies.

Last Tuesday a party of ladies with Mrs. J. M. Gregory of San Francisco as guide, left Washoe valley on horseback and went to one of the highest peaks on the shores of Lake Tahoe. They followed the trail as far as Lake Marlett, two miles from Lake Tahoe, and pitched their tents on the mountain over 9,000 feet above sea level. They had a very exciting time for a while and afterwards when they built their camp five a most enjoyable one. The party consisted of Mrs. J. M. Gregory, Miss Ella Smith, Miss Nellie Winters, Miss Elizabeth Irish, Miss Alice McAllister, Miss Neva Winters, Miss Ida Sauer, Miss Viola Smith, Miss L. Sauer, Miss Maggie Winters and Mr. Theodore Winters. All returned to the valley much pleased with their excursion up the rugged sides of the Sierra Nevada.

Church Notices.

M. E. Church—Next Sabbath at the M. E. Church in the morning our theme will be: "The Immortality of the Soul," and in the evening, "The Kingdom of God." All are cordially invited.

Guild Meeting.

The Woman' Guild of Trinity church will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. D. Phillips this (Saturday) August 4th, at 7:30 P. M. MRS. M. W. EMERY, Secretary.

DROWNED IN WASHOE LAKE.

While Fishing the Boat Capsized and Dennis J. Donahue Went to the Bottom.

Dennis J. Donahue, a brother of Deputy Sheriff John Donahue of Storey county, was drowned at Washoe lake yesterday morning at about 9 o'clock. He was fishing from a convas boat, near the club house and the boat capsized, throwing him into the water. He was but a short distance from shore, but not being able to swim he sank to the bottom. Persons who were also fishing in the lake, noticing the accident, endeavored to save the drowning man, but could not get to him in time. Deputy Sheriff Donahue was notified by telegraph of the accident and was soon on the scene. Coroner Brown of Washoe went up on yesterday's local, and held an inquest on the body, the remains having been recovered in the meantime. The verdict of the coroner's jury was in accordance with the above facts. The brother of deceased had the body removed to the Divide between Virginia city and Gold Hill, where his parents reside.

Dennis Donahue was a native of Grass Valley and about 22 years of age.

Changed His Mind.

James Fisher, who was arrested last Thursday for discharging fire arms in the public streets, and who at the time denied the charge and demanded a jury trial, after one night in the county cooler changed his mind and yesterday morning came into court and entered a plea of guilty, and at his own request was given a moderate sentence—sixty days in the county jail. The justice is somewhat in doubt as to whether Fisher changed his plea because he realized that he was guilty or the excellent quality of the "grub" dished up at the "Hotel de Caughlin."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

An Automatic Lifter.

David Nelson the blacksmith, has invented an automatic lifting machine which competent judges say is far superior to the jackscrew. A model of the machine weighs forty-four pounds and with it an ordinary man can lift about eight tons. A weight of one pound on a lever will lift 100 pounds. It is not a complicated nor a cumbersome machine and will probably come into general use, as it is not as heavy as the jackscrew though much more effective.

The Reveille says a rooster has been placed on a flagpole at the Clifton tunnel building at Austin, and at 7 A. M., 12 M. and 5:30 P. M. the rooster crows so as to let the men employed there know when it is time to go to and quit work. You should visit the works at the above named hours and hear the bird screech. It is a novel invention of some one.

There was a brief but rather lively runaway on Virginia street yesterday afternoon. A gentleman was driving along leisurely in a cart behind an unbroke colt, when the animal suddenly started in to free himself by kicks and bunges and in less time than it takes to write this [illegible] one wheel of the cart and landing the driver into the street. The driver held fast to the lines until bystanders caught and stopped the animal. The driver escaped with a few slight bruises and the horse was unhurt but badly frightened.

"German Syrup"

Here is something from Mr. Frank A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he often coughs enough to make him sick at his stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market."

THE NAVAL PAGEANT

LESSONS DRAWN FROM THE INTERNATIONAL DISPLAY.

Secretary Herbert of the Navy Quotes, "In Time of Peace Prepare For War"—Being Able to Fight Is Often a Protection. Mr. Herbert's Part.

The pages which Secretary Herbert devotes in the North American Review to a comment on the great show of ships at Norfolk and New York deal with it first as an illustration of the friendly feeling that now prevails between the United States and other nations.

He recalls that this peaceful rendezvous took place in the very roadstead where the Monitor and Merrimac fought and near where the Leopard attacked the Chesapeake, while close by at Norfolk lay the old Constellation, successor to Truxton's frigate that overcame the Insurgente in 1799. Of the nine nations whose 30 warships were there gathered three were republics, but all the vessels put on the colors of Italy in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of King Humbert's marriage, just as the British Blake afterward at New York, where once the prison ships of the Revolution lay, flashed out the image of Washington in her fireworks display, and just as other foreign ships took part in our Decoration day ceremonies.

Secretary Herbert well says that the voyage from Hampton Roads, when the vessels of nine nations, in two parallel columns, steamed at a prescribed rate, all under the command, by courtesy, of an American officer, formed "a scene that has no parallel in history." Yet even this scene was surpassed in suggestiveness by the land parade in New York, which, "while it was the most significant act of good will to the American people and American institutions, was also the crowning lesson of the review."

And what was that all important lesson? The secretary thus expresses it:

"Every thoughtful observer was impressed with the idea that if our men should ever come to blows with their friends who were behind them in line they could never hope to win except with a fair supply of ships and guns. The stalwart Russians, with their sturdy tramp; the business looking Britons, keeping step to 'God Save the Queen;' the quick stepping Frenchmen; the Germans, with their natty uniforms; the Italians, and indeed all the detachments, were drilled and disciplined into fighting machines. Never was such a sight witnessed before as the sailors of nine different nations marching together, and never was anything better calculated to impress upon those who saw them the lesson that the American sailor can keep his place upon the seas only when his government is behind him."

This, after all, should be an abiding moral of the pageant for our countrymen. It taught not only the beauty of peace, but the duty in peace to prepare for war. It was suggestive, no doubt, that while 70 years before Russia, Prussia and Austria had entered into a futile combination to reduce the Spanish-American colonies because they had set themselves up as independent republics, here were Russia and Germany joining their ships with those of republican France and the South American republics.

It was still more suggestive to find the armed forces of Russia and England marching one after another in the same streets and in the same column and the armed forces of France and Germany in like comradeship; while as to the intermingled forces of England and America, the sight of them prompted Secretary Herbert to say that "Great Britain never formally renounced the right of search, on account of which the war of 1812 was fought, until 1858, but the two countries have made peace at last, mutual good will and respect have been testified in many ways and never more significantly than at this naval review."

Yet it is not the peace note with which the secretary closes. He insists, as his conclusion, that in spite of Geneva arbitrations and Paris arbitrations, we have not yet found a safeguard against war. "The Geneva arbitration was achieved only after the terrific battles of our civil war had demonstrated to the world the fighting capacity of our citizen soldiery. If America would keep her own peace with all the nations of the earth and maintain her place in the vanguard of civilization, she must be at all times prepared for war. This is the lesson of history emphasized by the rendezvous and the review." We may add that such lessons were wholly additional to the original purpose of the ceremony, which was to furnish some distinctly naval pageant as the fittest possible form of public festival in honor of the greatest of voyages.

Indeed it may fairly be said that the full benefits of this memorable pageant were not universally recognized when it was planned. Even Mr. Herbert himself, although a member of the house naval committee, voted against the joint resolution of congress which directed it to be held, but as its possibilities gradually became apparent he headed the successful effort at a subsequent session to increase the appropriation for it to the amount needed. The advantage derived from bringing our own new ships together for the first time in considerable numbers has been exceedingly great, and it has been increased by giving them the opportunity to compare themselves not only with each other, but with the picked warships of eight other nations.

Still the great benefit of the review, according to Secretary Herbert, has been in teaching what remains for the country to do in its naval preparations.—New York Sun.

Illuminating a Boy's Head.

At a meeting of the Academy of Medicine held in New York recently, Dr. Wendell C. Phillips, one of the members, exhibited an electric head illuminator which was productive of some unique results. A small boy was taken, and a powerful electric lamp was inserted in his mouth, which was then closed on the handle which held the lamp. The lights of the meeting were all turned down, and the storage battery was turned on. The light in the boy's mouth shone out through his cheeks, detailing every vein, line and imperfection in the skin and the lines of teeth and gums in the mouth. His face looked ghastly in its vividness and reminded one, if it were possible, of an intensely realistic jack-o'-lantern

Why Mr. Hawthorne Wants to Get Away.

Mr. Julian Hawthorne, who happens to be in Chicago just at present, says that the new and cheap edition of his father's "Scarlet Letter" are bringing upon him (Julian) a mighty flood of letters from people who "discover in this powerful, if improbable story," the promise of "extraordinary work in the future." The editor of a weekly literary journal in Texas has offered Mr. Hawthorne the magnificent sum of $200 if he will contribute to that publication a novel of Texas life treated upon the same lines as those of the "Scarlet Letter." This is one of the reasons why Mr. Hawthorne is anxious to go to the West Indies to live.—Chicago News-Record.

Chicago Pressed Chicken.

A Dundas man has for the past few weeks, it is claimed, been traveling through the counties of Rice, Goodhue and Dakota buying up all the calves he can for 50 cents. These calves are taken to his farm at Stanton, about seven miles north of this city, where they are killed, skinned and chopped up—lights, livers and bones—and packed into boxes and shipped to a Chicago firm. The Chicago firm puts them through some process and sells them to the World's fair restaurants for "pressed chicken." This man has shipped large numbers of these calves.—Cor. Minneapolis Journal.

What's In a Name.

It is a year of odd names for men of sudden fame. Here is a list that suggests itself at a moment's thought: Zimri Dwiggins, banker; Dahomey Dodds, warrior; Hoke Smith, journalist and statesman; Sylvester Pennoyer, who told the president "to mind his own business;" Stanhope Sams, poet and statesman; Colonel Pod Dismuke, statesman; Colonel Dink Botts, office seeker. And the year is yet young.—Kansas City Times.

HOOD'S CURES when all other preparations fail. It possesses curative power peculiar to itself. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Can This Be True?

"No, sir, I'll not pay 35 cents for a small sandwich and 50 cents more for service. That's simply highway robbery," said a New York man to the proprietor of a Chicago restaurant.

"That, sir, is an insult to compare me with a highway robber."

"Yes, you are right. If there were any highway robbers, I would certainly beg their pardon."—Texas Siftings.

A man said to be 75 years old has entered as a student at Princeton college. He had all his life been imbued with a desire to have a college education, and a legacy has at last placed him in a position to obtain one.

In Glass.

That's the way Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come. And it's a more important point than you think. It keeps them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pill in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes.

They're put up in a better way and they act in a better way, than the huge old-fashioned pills. No griping, no violence, no reaction afterward that sometimes leaves you worse off than before. In that way they cure permanently. Sick Headeache, Bilious Headeache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements o the liver, stomach, and bowels, are prevented relieved and cured.

They're tiny, sugar-coated granules, a compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts—the smallest in size, the easiest to take, and the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

There's nothing likely to be just as good.

RULES AND CONDITIONS.

Races begin at 1 o'clock sharp P. M.

Dial clock indicates the time each race starts.

Thirty minutes between races.

Signals—Bell call denotes to saddle. Bugle calls the horses to post.

The bugle call will be precisely five minutes after the saddle call.

Owners, trainers, jockeys or others having care of the animal that do not send the horse out promptly at post signal will be fined.

Nominations to all stakes must be made to the Secretary on or before the 1st day of September, 1893.

Entries for the running purses must be made two days preceding the race, before 6 o'clock P. M.

Those who have nominated in stakes must name to the Secretary in writing which they will start the day before the race at 6 P. M.

Horses entered in purses can only be drawn by consent of the judges.

In making entries for purse races, the name, age and sex of the horse, and the weight and colors of the rider must be given. After a horse has run once at the meeting, the name of the horse, with the weight to be carried at the race is sufficient.

In purses and stakes, three horses of different interests to enter and start or the race may be declared off by the executive committee.

In all free for all running races, except handicaps, and where other stipulated conditions do not conflict with this rule, all horses that have not won before September 1st, will be allowed ten pounds, and all horses that have won prior to September 1st shall carry five pounds over scale weight.

Ten per cent. entrance to all races unless the conditions otherwise stipulate, and must be paid prior to weighing the jockey out.

Where there is more than one entry by the person, or in one interest, the particular horse they are to start must be named by 6 P. M. of the day preceding the race.

No added money paid for a walk-over.

Entries to all Trotting and Pacing races close September 1st with the Secretary.

All Trotting and Pacing purses divided at the rate of 60, 30 and 10 per cent.

All Trotting and Pacing races are the best three in five, unless otherwise specified; five or more to enter and three or more to start, but the Board reserves the right to hold a less number than five to fill, by the withdrawal of a proportionate amount of the purse, which shall be divided pro rata.

In all two in three races horses not winning one heat in two must go to the stable; and in all three in five races horses not winning one heat in three must go to the stable.

The Board reserves the right to trot heats of any two classes alternately if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between heats.

When less than the required number of starters appear they may contest for the entrance money, to be divided as follows 66⅔ to the first and 33⅓ to the second.

In dividing purses no horse shall receive more than one money.

At the discretion of the Board, and without notice, the entries of any person may be refused.

Every person subscribing to a sweepstake, or entering a horse in a running race, under these conditions, accepts the decision of the Board of Directors on any question relating to a race or racing.

National Trotting Association rules to govern trotting races. Pacific Coast Horse Association rules to govern all running races where they do not conflict with these conditions.

All entries must be addressed to C. H. Stoddard, Reno, Nevada.

W. O. H. MARTIN, President.
C. H. STODDARD, Secretary.
